

Rail Technology Seminar

Institution of Mechanical Engineers
Wednesday 27th September 2006

The aim of this seminar will be to describe the state-of-the art of rail technology in the UK and highlight important future developments. Particular emphasis will be placed on the relevance of British experience for those considering rail liberalisation.

Provisional Programme:

- 10.30 Registration and Coffee
- 11.00 Introduction
John Preston (University of Southampton)
- 11.15 Infrastructure
William Powrie (University of Southampton)
- 12.00 Signalling and Train Control
Rod Muttram (Bombardier)
- 12.45 Discussion
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Advanced Controls and Monitoring for Rail Vehicles
Roger Goodall (Loughborough University)
- 14.45 Rail Safety
Rod Smith (Imperial College London)
- 15.30 System Interfaces
Clive Roberts (University of Birmingham)
- 16:15 Discussion
- 16:30 Close and Tea

This event is free of charge but places will be allocated strictly on a first come, first served basis. To reserve your place e-mail A.A.Leyland@soton.ac.uk, stating your name and organisation.

Further information will be posted on the SR2 Website:

www.sr2.soton.ac.uk

Sponsored by:

Supported by:

